

open exhibition rules and entry form.

1. Eligibility Requirement:

This open submission exhibition is open to all students and staff of St. John's college.

2. Submission requirements

- Drawings must be done primarily in Ink on paper and be no larger than A4 or smaller than A5. (Any ink pens or ink medium is permissible).
- Your phone number must be clearly written on the back of each submission
- Drawings must be unframed and unmounted
- Original artworks only! No printed copies of originals will be accepted.
- 2 submissions per artist maximum.
- All artworks must be placed unfolded in an appropriate envelope with this entry form completed. The envelope must have your name and postal address on it.

Any submission that does not meet these requirements will not be hung and will be returned to the artists after the show

3. Entry Fees:

Free

4. Permissions:

By entering this exhibition, you are granting St. John's college permission to show images of your artwork on our St. John's College website and on our social media platforms, Artworks will not be used for any other purpose than that which is stated here.

- 5. Selection for exhibition: A panel of college staff will make a selection for exhibition. Submission of work is not a guarantee of a place in the exhibition. The panels decision will be final and non – negotiable.

6. The Entry Process:

- Step 1. Create your ink drawing. Check out inktober.com for some inspiration
- Step 2: You can then enter by any of these means:

Drawings can be left in the college library (mornings only) or given to Ray Lonergan in room 3.07. (Make sure that they are in a self-addressed envelope, with this entry form.)

7. Submission Deadlines:

Drawings may be submitted up until 3pm on Tuesday November 6th. No artworks will be accepted past this deadline.

8. Return of drawings:

Drawings will be returned by your art teacher or by unregistered post after the exhibition in December. The college does not accept responsibility for any loss or damage to art works.

An exhibition of drawings will take place in St. John's College from November 12th to December 7th 2019

A prize of Ink drawing materials worth €50 will be awarded to one chosen entry
